

Half Baked Extravaganza – Tuesday May 14th -- Auditorium at the Northwest Fisheries Science Center

Coffee and Donuts	8:30 - 9:00
Presentation Session 1	9:00-10:30
Steve Kasperski	Can Species Diversity Improve the Resiliency of Fishing Communities?
Mike Dalton	Maximum Economic Yield
Alan Haynie	The Chinook Bycatch Reduction Program
Lisa Pfeiffer	The Effects of Catch Share Management on Rent Generation Through Targeting and Production Choices
Break	10:30-11:00
Presentation Session 2	11:00-12:30
Carl Lian	Cost Allocation for Commercial Fishing Vessels Participating in Multiple Fisheries
Erin Steiner	A First Look at Crew in the West Coast Trawl Rationalization Program
Suzanne Russel	Pacific Groundfish Fishery Social Study - An Update
Karma Norman	Network Analysis of the Quota Pounds Market for the West Coast ITQ
Lunch (Out BYO)	12:30-2:00
Presentation Session 3	2:00-3:30
Lilly Hsueh	A Quasi-experimental Approach to Evaluating the Efficacy of the “Rights to Fish”
Dan Holland	Location Choice and Bycatch Avoidance in the Pacific Groundfish Trawl Fishery Under ITQs
Ray Hilborn	A Summary of Current Data on Fisheries Biological, Social and Economic Performance
Chris Anderson	The Fisheries Performance Indicators: Results from Global Case Studies
Break	3:30-3:50
Presentation Session 4	3:50-5:00
Andrew Scheld	Catch Shares, Overlapping Regulatory Regimes, and Micro Market Structure in New England Groundfish
Josh Nowlis	Estimating IUU Fishing Effort Using Economic Variables from Colombia's Caribbean Spiny Lobster Fishery
Pamela Woods	Catch-quota Balancing Regulations in the Icelandic Multi-species Demersal Fishery
Closing	5:00
